Nature of Complaint:

10/26/06 Customer called to give his opinion on the upcoming rate case. The customer said he feels the rate increase should not be that high. During the peak season when the customer's electricity cost goes up and they are charged the summer rates - why is the cost so high and then when the summer rates drop the difference is not high enough. The customer said when the summer temperatures were at the highest - he and his wife turned the air up and open window and still had a high electric bill - so they suffered unnecessarily because he still had a large bill.
